

Policy Unit: 5f PHB9

Hamworthy Quays

Summary

This unit consists of reclaimed land that has been heavily developed into a series of quays, marinas and commercial developments. The unit is entirely defended by a concrete seawall and rock revetment with rock breakwaters protecting the marina in the southwest corner and another rock breakwater protecting a marina to the northeast within policy unit PHB11. There is no beach frontage within this unit and erosion is considered to be negligible if defences remain in place.
